

DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE

THIS IS TO CERTIFY THAT

THE AIR FORCE ACHIEVEMENT MEDAL

HAS BEEN AWARDED TO

SENIOR AIRMAN NOAH T. WRIGHT

FOR

MERITORIOUS SERVICE

9 DECEMBER 2011 TO 12 FEBRUARY 2016

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Senior Airman Noah T. Wright distinguished himself by meritorious service while assigned to Education Operations and Communications Directorate, Headquarters Air University, Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama. During this period, Airman Wright identified more than 190 critical software vulnerabilities and repaired 72 coding flaws, which enhanced the security of databases valued at one million dollars. Additionally, he discovered and eliminated a class archiving coding error that decreased processing time from more than two hours to less than one minute. Furthermore, Airman Wright removed inactive accounts from multiple learning management systems which freed dormant user licenses and saved the Air Force over 220,000 dollars. Finally, he spearheaded a student information system framework upgrade by updating 645,000 lines of antiquated code. Airman Wright's dedication to duty led to his selection as Headquarters Air University's 2013 Airman of the Fourth Quarter and the 2015 Airman of the Year. The distinctive accomplishments of Airman Wright reflect credit upon himself and the United States Air Force.
